Report on the One-Day National Level Symposium on Virtual Mode held in Celebration of World Folklore Day titled as "Folklore, Ecology & Humanity: Wisdom & Archetypes Across Cultures"

Date	22/08/2025
Time	7 PM TO 9 PM
Venue	Google Meet Platform
Organised by	IQAC, Lokepara Mahavidyalaya in Collaboration with Centre for Folklore Studies and Research (CFSR)
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To highlight the ecological significance of folklore and stories. To demonstrate how pre-colonial beliefs involved harmonious relationships between humans and nature. To illustrate the role of folktales and rituals in wildlife conservation. To explore the cultural importance of sacred sites and landscapes in environmental protection. To analyse traditional taboos and beliefs that enforce ecological sustainability, including restrictions on tree cutting and hunting. To emphasize the importance of indigenous ecological knowledge in addressing contemporary environmental issues. To advocate for the continued telling of traditional stories to inspire environmental preservation and a sustainable future.
